Sustained solid double-digit growth in revenues and profits

- VV29 mission successfully completed with Avio new Launch Service Operator of Vega. Ready for VV30 mission in September
- New P160C boosters successfully power Ariane's missions. Rapid Ariane 6 cadence increase fuels production rate
- Liquid propulsion demonstrator integration completed, to be ground-tested in 2026
- U.S. project progressing as expected: C-level staffing plan nearing completion, ground-breaking ceremony approaching at the end of September
- Advent to invest ~€110 million to support Avio's expansion in Italy and the United States
- Continued high-teens growth in revenues and EBITDA vs. 1H 2025
- FY 2026 Guidance confirmed

Success for VV29 mission

- On May 19th Vega C's VV29 mission launched ESA's and CAS' Solar wind Magnetosphere Ionosphere Link Explorer (SMILE) scientific satellite. The 2,250 kilograms satellite will measure the solar wind and its dynamic interactions with the Earth's magnetosphere
- The mission is the first operated by Avio, reaffirming its key role in supporting ESA's missions

Execution of Avio's U.S. strategy on track

Milestones achieved

- Site secured: ~1,200 acres of industrial land purchased in April in the Southern Virginia Multimodal Park
- ~$65m order signed in March, consolidating trend for defense business growth
- U.S. factory eligible of up to $97.7m incentive package
- Establishing Avio USA leadership team: recruitment of the CEO's direct reports nearly completed (e.g., CFO, COO, SVP of Engineering, SVP of Business Development)

In progress

- Discussion of long term commitments with customers is ongoing
- Capital deployment progressing: process equipment long-lead items orders ongoing
- Design of the new plant moving forward
- Ground-breaking ceremony scheduled for the end of September

SRM unmet demand now up to 40% wider vs. last year's estimate

Backlog standing at >€2.0bn

Figures in €m

Main comments

- Order intakes in 1H 2026 amounting to ~€160m including:
 - Launch systems ~€50m: mainly related to development contracts on Vega C and Vega E launchers
 - Defense propulsion ~€110m: related to production contract with MBDA in France (ASTER 30) and development contract in USA for development, qualification and initial production of a solid rocket motor for air defense applications

- Production accounts for ~70% of backlog, Development for ~30%

Revenues continue to increase at a double-digit pace

Figures in €m

Net revenues | Breakdown by Line of Business

Net revenues | Breakdown by Activity

~€40m of revenues growth vs. 1H 2025, mainly due to the increase in production activities in Launch systems (Vega production), in Space propulsion (increase of boosters' production for Ariane 6) and in Defense propulsion

NET INCOME % on net revenues	(0,2) -0,1%	4. 9,2 3,3%	9,3	n.m.

Main comments

- 1. Revenues recorded double-digit growth on a half-year basis for the fourth consecutive year (+€41m, +18% vs. 1H 2025), demonstrating continuing ability to execute
- 2. EBITDA reported increase (+€1.9m, +19%) driven by higher revenues and margins mostly dependent on the profitability of the space business
- 3. EBIT reported increase (+€1.2m) driven by the same underlying EBITDA dynamics, despite higher depreciation related to increased Vega C cadence
- 4. Net Income increase (+€9.3m) reflects improved financial income on average cash available, and fair value adjustment of investments

(1) Excluding non-recurring costs equal to €1.4m in 1H 2025 and €0.3m in 1H 2026

(2) EBIT Adjusted equal to €1.4m in 1H 2025 and €1.5m in 1H 2026

TOTAL SOURCES	(116,8)	(176,3)	(59,5)

Main comments

1. Working capital structurally negative, increasing due to the flow-down to suppliers of advance payments collected in Q4 2025
2. Net Fixed assets increase mainly related to capex for land acquisition for Avio USA plant, higher Vega cadence, and testing infrastructure
3. Net financial position reduction reflects investments made and the working capital increase in the period
